

Kori S. Carew, Esq. is an attorney, TEDx speaker, and community builder who generates awareness and understanding of critical human issues by creating the space and climate for open dialogue that is meaningful, and enables people to expand their perspective and drive positive change. With grace and truth she is a people inclusion strategist, advocate, speaker, coach, writer, status quo disruptor, truth teller, wife, and mother of two curly-haired, wise, energetic, fierce, spitfire daughters. She brings an incisive voice, unapologetic questioning of the status quo, and a lifelong fascination of human potential to empowering women and historically marginalized and excluded people. Her multi-national, multi-religious, multi-ethnic, multi-lingual family background gives her a keen sensitivity to belonging and inclusion across differences.

Kori brings a fierce love of community and belonging that embraces differences to her work, ministry, and life. At her day job she focuses on developing and implementing strategies for individual career, leadership and organizational diversity and inclusion success, helps organizations build bridges across differences and improve inclusion, coaches, trains on people and leadership development as well as diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging topics. Kori is a nationally sought-after speaker on topics of diversity, inclusion and belonging, inclusive leadership, talent engagement and development, authenticity and leveraging power. Her TEDx, Just belonging: finding the courage to interrupt bias can be found here. Beyond her work within organizations she actively serves her community as a legal and civic leader.

Kori is the Chief Catalyst Officer and Founder of the consulting firm Bridge 68 LLC focused on empowering individuals and organizations to be their best through people and leadership development and cultivating belonging, inclusion, diversity and equity. She brings 22 years of experience leading, advocating and counseling in law firms including leading Inclusion and Diversity strategies and programs in AmLaw 100 law Firms and 30 years DEIB experience. Kori was most recently the Chief Inclusion and Diversity Officer at an international AmLaw 100 law firm Seyfarth Shaw where she rolled out several talent, belonging and inclusion initiatives including The Belonging Project.

Kori took up painting during the pandemic and is energized by helping people live their best lives. She loves to sing, cook, entertain, dance (including in the hallways at work), and read when she is not equipping leaders to be inclusive, interrupt bias and disrupt the status quo, or helping individuals live their best and fiercest lives. When she is not "working" she focuses her voice and talent on issues of gender equity and rights, inclusion, and human and civil rights, serving in her church and community, entertaining in her home, and cherishing her phenomenal community.

Kori is a Certified Dare to Lead™ Facilitator, a certified Gallup CliftonStrengths® Coach and an IDI Qualified Administrator. She also is an Enneagram 1 (improver) and Conscious Reformer on the Insight Profiles Discovery wheel (blue). Her top 5 CliftonStrengths® are: connectedness, achiever, learner, responsibility, and context.
